The Love List

Print it out,
fill it out,
give it out,
make someone happy!

Thank you for who you are and all that you bring to my life!

How to create a Love List

Three Easy steps!

1 Think about someone for whom you want to show your love and appreciation.

2 Set aside some time, without distraction. Then, simply sit down and focus on all the things you love about this person. Things they do. Things they say. Loving habits. Funny quirks.

Your list can be funny or sweet or silly. If you get stuck, think about favorite times you've shared and what made them so great. Think about if this person died, what would you miss? Think about ordinary, every-day things as well as standout moments. For a list of helpful prompts, visit our website:

3 Now make a list. You can draft your list on a sheet of paper, written by hand, and then copy it all onto the template I've provided on the next page. (Er, once you print it out!) Or, you can use some of my presentation ideas, which you'll find on page six. Maybe you'll also want to come up with your own creative idea on how to present the list!

Once you've completed your list, if you'd be willing to photograph it and email me a copy, I'd be thrilled! I always love to hear about people's experiences with their Love Lists!

Presentation Ideas

- 1 Print out our ready-made template, hand-write your responses, and voila, you're done.
- 2 Present your list handwritten on decorative paper or slip it in a card.
- 3 Type it in the computer, use a fun typeface, and add photos or artwork.
- 4 Create a framed poster.
- 5 Make an audio recording of yourself reading the Love List.
- 6 Write each "love" on a separate piece of paper, fold 'em up, and put them in a decorative box or bowl, or Joy Jar.
- 7 Create personalized fortune cookies (er, happy cookies), each with a different "love" message.
- 8 Create an Advent calendar, with one "Love" to be opened each day.
- 9 Make a hanging mobile.
- 10 Get creative! What's something the recipient loves. Say, fishing. So put all your Love List slips inside a tackle box.
